ARTS

Baring Foundation - Arts and Mental Health Programme	The Baring Foundation
Aims/priorities:	The funding is intended to allow Global Majority-led arts organisations to develop their offer of creative opportunities to people living with mental health problems. This funding round is part of new funding for racial justice work across the Foundation’s programmes. Grants can fully or partially fund the work. The work must take place in the UK. Although the funding cannot support work that is already funded, it can support the extension or expansion of work. Grants should be used to provide participatory creative activities to people living with mental health problems, mostly from Global Majority communities. It is hoped that activities contribute towards addressing the under-representation of artists from ethnically diverse backgrounds working in arts and mental health.
Who can apply?	Applications will only be considered from arts organisations who meet the following criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• An established arts organisation of any kind (including museums). This could be a charity or a regulated social enterprise, such as a Community Interest Company. In this case, ‘arts organisation’ means an organisation whose primary purpose is around the arts and creativity broadly defined. Applicants working in partnership with relevant community groups and sharing resources are encouraged to apply.</li> <li>• Arts organisations that are Global Majority-led. There is no ‘official’ definition of Global Majority Communities. In this context, it will be used to mean communities that experience racism in the UK, including Gypsy, Roma and Traveller communities.</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Arts organisations that have been established for at least two years with audited accounts for at least that length of time.</li> </ul> Although the lead applicant must be a Global Majority-led arts organisation, they may wish to partner with an organisation specialising in mental health which is not arts-focused.
Grant amount:	Between £20,000 and £60,000 are available over a minimum of two years.
Application process:	There will be two Zoom meetings for anyone interested in applying on 9 May 2022 and 8 June 2022. The guidelines and full details of how to apply are available on the Baring Foundation website.
Deadline:	The deadline to apply is 12pm on 26 July 2022.

Paul Hamlyn Foundation - Arts Access and Participation Fund
Aims/priorities:	The aim of the Access and Participation Fund is to support change in the way the arts are created, presented, accessed and experienced so that a wider and more diverse group of people have access to quality artistic practice, both as audiences and participants. The funding will cover work that involves any of the following: crafts, dance, design, digital arts and media, film, literature (including creative writing and poetry), music, opera, photography, theatre, the visual arts, and cross-arts practices. The funding can be used in one or more of the following ways:

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Support which underpins specific programmes of work</li> <li>• Support for core costs</li> <li>• Support to adapt existing work to new contexts or to test new ways of working.</li> </ul>
Who can apply?	Not-for-profit, formally constituted organisations in the UK are eligible to apply. Priority will be given to organisations that are led by, and work that is developed and delivered with (including as artists and or practitioners), people who are most affected by systemic oppression and or discrimination. This means Black, Asian and other groups who experience racism, Deaf, disabled and neurodiverse people who experience the effects of ableism, those who identify as sitting at the intersections of several minoritized identities, and people experiencing poverty. It is unlikely that newly registered organisations that have yet to produce independently audited/examined accounts will be funded, and it is recommended that they speak to a Grants Manager first.
Grant amount:	Grants of between £30,000 and £400,000 for activity lasting between 12 months and 4 years with an option to extend for a further period. Most grants are in the £60,000 to £250,000 range. Pre-application access support and a bursary of up to £500 is available to help groups apply.
Application process:	There is a two-stage application process. The Foundation aims to reach a final decision on applications within four months of receipt of stage 1 applications. The guidance notes, sample application form and the online application form are available from the Paul Hamlyn Foundation website.
Deadline:	There are no deadlines. Applications can be made at any time.

Happy Days Children's Charity

Aims/priorities:

The Happy Days Charity is a national children's charity dedicated to providing holidays, days out, and theatre trips for disadvantaged young people with special needs. The Charity supports families with children aged 3-17 who have learning difficulties, physical or mental disabilities, acute, chronic or life limiting illnesses, been abused or neglected, witnessed domestic violence, been bereaved or act as carers for a parent or a sibling.

Who can apply?

The below can apply:

- For Day Trips, Visiting Theatre and Group Activity Holidays: The applicant must represent a group of young people aged 3-17 with additional needs. This includes representatives of a special needs school or special needs group, young carers and women's refuges. Only key carers will be funded and additional adults must be self-funded. A group leader and deputy group leader must be nominated.
- For Family Holiday Breaks and Family Day Trips: The child or children in need of the holiday (ie a two to four night break within the UK) should be between 3 and 17 years old, have special educational needs or have been abused or have a life-limiting condition. Families must also have a household income of £28,000 or under, this includes all benefits received but not PIP/DLA, Child Benefit or carers allowance.
- The Charity will accept an application for a family holiday from parents, guardians, grandparents or siblings. The Charity will also accept applications from GPs, consultants, nurses or social workers.

Grant amount:

The minimum or maximum grant levels are not specified.

FAITH

Listed Places of Worship Grant Scheme
Aims/priorities:	The Listed Places of Worship Grant Scheme makes grants towards the VAT incurred in maintenance and repairs to listed buildings that are primarily used for public worship, or which are listed places of worship owned by, or under the authority of, a number of specified organisations that look after redundant places of worship. Only works carried out to repair, maintain or alter the fabric of an existing listed building are eligible. To claim under the scheme, eligible works must be carried out by a VAT registered contractor. For a list of the eligible work, please visit the funders website.

Who can apply?	The scheme applies to listed buildings that are mainly used as a place of public worship. To be eligible, the place of worship must be listed with the relevant statutory listing agency (Historic England, CADW, Historic Scotland or Northern Ireland Environment Agency). The listing must be in force when the works are undertaken. In addition, the building must meet one of the following criteria: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Be used as a place of worship at least six times a year.</li> <li>• Belong to a monastery, nunnery or other similar establishment.</li> <li>• Be owned or vested in certain specific organisations which look after redundant churches. These are the Historic Chapels Trust, the Friends of Friendless Churches, the Scottish Redundant Churches Trust, the Churches Conservation Trust and the Welsh Religious Buildings Trust.</li> </ul>
Grant amount:	The minimum value of invoices (excluding VAT) for any one claim to the scheme is £1,000. An application may comprise a number of smaller invoices, but each claim must apply to works that are eligible under the scheme and together generate combined invoice values of no less than £1,000 excluding VAT. In addition, to allow places of worship undertaking smaller works to benefit from the scheme, each listed place of worship will also be allowed to submit one claim with a value of between £500 and £1,000 (excluding the VAT paid) in any 12 month period.

OLDER PEOPLE

Concertina Charitable Trust

Aims/priorities:	Funding is intended to provide musical entertainment and related activities for the elderly to provide therapeutic benefit for their health and wellbeing. The Trust awards grants to charitable bodies which provide cultural activities and related facilities for the elderly, in order to improve the quality of life of elderly people.
Who can apply?	The Trust is keen to support smaller charitable organisations in England and Wales that might otherwise find it difficult to gain funding. These include funds to many care homes for the elderly, to provide musical entertainment for residents. Organisations will be automatically refused funding if they do not include their accounts or financial statements with the application.
Grant amount:	Grants of up to £250 are available.
Application process:	Application forms are available from the Trust's website. Applicants are advised to submit their proposal ahead of the deadline in order for it to be reviewed by the administrator. No e-mail or telephone correspondence will be entered into regarding an application. Only hard copy postal applications will be accepted.
Deadline:	31 October 2022.

Clubs in Crisis Fund
Aims/priorities:	The Clubs in Crisis (#ClubsInCrisis) Fund aims to support eligible grassroots sports clubs and organisations in the UK that have been impacted negatively by the coronavirus/COVID-19 pandemic, either operationally or financially. The Fund is only

	available to sports clubs and organisations that are working in the sport for development sector, ie those that intentionally use sport to deliver wider social outcomes, usually through third sector and voluntary, community and social enterprise bodies. To be eligible, clubs must provide clear evidence of how they use sport to help young people develop life skills, employment opportunities, reduce crime and anti-social behaviour or tackle mental health issues. The fund is being administered locally around the country by the UK Community Foundations network. Organisations will need to apply via the relevant Community Foundation in their area (a postcode finder is available on the Made by Sport website). Clubs and organisations must be using sport to work towards one of more of the following outcomes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Developing life skills.</li> <li>Improving mental health.</li> <li>Reducing crime and anti-social behaviour.</li> <li>Developing employability skills.</li> <li>Building stronger communities.</li> </ul> The funding is unrestricted and can be used for core, programme or capital costs. The grants are for clubs and organisations working in the sport for development sector. Sport for development is defined as the intentional use of sport to achieve other social outcomes and is a powerful tool to help young people deal with these issues.
Who can apply?	Applications are accepted from clubs or organisations that intentionally use sport to deliver wider social outcomes. Eligible organisations must be constituted and working in the UK and can include:

	Registered charities. Social enterprises and community interest companies (CICs). Other not-for-profit organisations. The funders are looking for organisations that operate mostly in disadvantaged communities, often working collaboratively with other partners to meet local need and may offer cross-sector activities. Organisations must have an annual turnover of less than £75,000.
Grant amount:	One-off grants of up to £2,021 are available.
Application process:	Applications are made via the group's local community foundation (a postcode finder link is available on the Made by Sport website to help organisations find their relevant community foundation). Each community foundation will have their own application process. Applicants should check the specific details on their relevant community foundation website.
