Rochdale Families for Peace Ten-week summer course

You can...

- help make a positive difference to the local area
- get a recognised Open Awards qualification and certificate
- share understanding about issues like conflict and extremism
- gain new skills to help resolve disagreements and disputes, whether in the family, at work or in the community.

Rochdale Families for Peace is a FREE course which is open to anyone living in the borough.

Sessions take place from 10.00am to 1.00pm on Wednesday mornings at The Strand Community Hub, 17 The Strand, Kirkholt, Rochdale, OL11 2JG. The course begins on 31 July and runs for ten weeks.

If you're interested and want to find out more about the course, please contact Hannah Larn at the Peace Foundation by email: hannah.larn@peace-foundation.org.uk, call on 07572 975949, or contact our office on 01925 581 231.

What will you gain?

- A FREE course
- Level 2 Open Awards qualification
- Skills in conflict resolution and problem solving
- Understanding of conflict and extremism
- Build up your critical thinking skills
- Gain confidence in holding difficult conversations
- Ability to share opinions and experiences

When? Where?

Rochdale Families for Peace will take place on Wednesday mornings from 10.00am to 1.00pm at The Strand Community Hub, 17 The Strand, Kirkholt, Rochdale, OL11 2JG on the following dates: 31 July, 7 Aug, 14 Aug, 21 Aug, 28 Aug, 4 Sept, 11 Sept, 18 Sept, 25 Sept and 2 Oct.

Lunch is provided at every session, and crèche places or childcare can be provided where needed.

If you can make nearly all the dates, but not every single one of them, you can still come onto the course – and catch up at other times. If you would like to come on this kind of course, but cannot make August and September, do get in touch: we will be running courses again at another venue in the area from October to December.
